Impact	Clockwise staircase in this zone helps to maintain the emotional balance of the residents. It also helps to reduce their tendency to cry over trivial issues.

GENERAL NOTES

- Stairs are meant to connect one floor with the rest of the building.
- For floors other than the ground floor, it facilitates the entry-to the space on that floor.
- So, according to Vastu, a staircase in a building should be located on the places of "Good entrances" like - N3, N4, S3 and S4.
- The only thing which should be kept in mind, while placing a Staircase in a building plan is that the stairs should always go upwards from the East to the West (E-W) and from the North to the South (N-S).
- A clockwise staircase creates a downward vortex of energy in a vastu zone, anti-clockwise staircase creates an upward energy vortex.
- If you want to enhance the attribute of any zone, make anticlockwise stairs.
- IF you want to moderate or suppress the attribute, make clockwise.
- It is seen from lower to upper floor, if while going upper floor, you are moving towards left (anticlockwise) or right (clockwise).
- Clockwise and anticlockwise helix and Jiten pyramid can be use to correct the effect, if it is at wrong direction or wrong wise.
